

AIB Group Annual General Meeting re-located from Belfast to Dublin

12th March 2001

AIB today announced that the 2001 annual general meeting, originally scheduled for Belfast, is now to be held in Dublin.

Official guidelines on the prevention of foot-and-mouth disease advise that all travel between the Republic and Northern Ireland should be restricted unless absolutely necessary.

In these circumstances, the shareholders' meeting will now be held in AIB's headquarters at Bankcentre, Ballsbridge, Dublin on Wednesday April 25 at 12 noon.
