

Allied Irish Bank (GB) appoints Steven McNair

9th April 2003

Allied Irish Bank (GB), five times voted Britain's Best Business Bank*, is delighted to announce the appointment of Steven McNair as Business Development Manager at its Glasgow office.

Steven, 43, brings 25 year's experience of business banking with Clydesdale Bank where he was Business Banking Manager at its Business Banking Centre Head Office in Glasgow. The appointment is part of Allied Irish Bank (GB)'s nation-wide recruitment drive aiming to attract high-calibre business bankers to work for the UK's best business bank.

Commenting on his appointment, Steven said: "Within the banking industry, and beyond, Allied Irish Bank (GB) has a formidable reputation for business banking and outstanding customer service. My strength is relationship banking and I wanted to work for a bank which focuses purely on business banking customers. I look forward to a long career with the bank."

"We are delighted to welcome Steven to Allied Irish Bank (GB)," said Bob Baldock, Head of Corporate Banking, Allied Irish Bank (GB). "His proven track record in nurturing and maintaining lasting relationships with customers will be indispensable for growing the business."

Those interested in a career with Allied Irish Bank (GB), and who can demonstrate a successful track record in helping small and medium-sized companies achieve their potential, should visit the careers section of our site for further details. www.aibgb.co.uk/careers