

AIB - proposed acquisition of EBS Limited to form one of the two pillar Irish banks

26th May 2011

Allied Irish Banks, p.l.c. ("AIB") [NYSE:AIB] today announces that it has signed an agreement with the Minister for Finance (the "Minister"), the National Treasury Management Agency (the "NTMA") and EBS Building Society ("EBS") to acquire EBS (the "Transaction"). Following completion of the Transaction, EBS will operate as a wholly owned, fully licensed subsidiary of AIB. This follows the announcement by the Minister on 31 March 2011 of the Government's decision to combine EBS with AIB to form one of the two pillar Irish banks.

The Transaction has been approved by the Minister. It is expected that the Transaction will complete on 1 July 2011, following the statutory notice period required as part of the demutualisation process and satisfaction of various conditions, including the receipt of regulatory approvals.

Completion of the Transaction will be an important milestone in the creation of a reshaped and revitalised banking sector.

EBS is a savings and loan business predominantly focused on residential mortgage loans in the Irish market with c. 440,000 active customers and a network of 95 retail outlets. At 31 December 2010, EBS reported €20.1 billion of total assets and net assets of €692 million, c. €16.5 billion of customer loans and c. €9.4 billion of customer deposits giving a loan to deposit ratio of 175%. EBS reported a profit of €56.4 million before impairment charges for the year ended 31 December 2010.

AIB has estimated that, on a pro forma basis as at 31 December 2010, the Transaction would have had the following impact on its financial position if it had occurred in its entirety by that date.

	At 31 December 2010	At 31 December 2010
€ billions	Actual	Pro forma	Estimated impact of the transaction
Total assets	145.2	165.3	20.1
Risk Weighted assets	98.8	108.6	9.8
Loans – Net	86.4	102.8	16.4
Deposits	52.4	61.8	9.4
Core tier 1 capital ratio	4.0%	4.4%	0.4%
Loan to deposit ratio	164.8%	166.4%	1.6%

The Transaction will be effected pursuant to an acquisition conversion scheme mechanism under Part XI of the Building Societies Act 1989 (as amended) whereby EBS will be demutualised by conversion from a building society into a private limited company, to be called EBS Limited, the entire issued share capital of which will be held by the Minister. AIB has agreed, subject to certain conditions, to acquire the entire issued share capital of EBS Limited from the Minister immediately upon conversion. EBS will apply to the Central Bank of Ireland for a banking licence, which is expected to be issued prior to conversion of EBS into a private company.

Upon completion of the Transaction, EBS Limited will operate as a separately branded subsidiary of AIB with its own branch network.

The position of EBS customers will remain unchanged as a result of the Transaction and customers should continue to undertake their business as normal with EBS.

Both AIB and EBS are substantially owned by the State and, accordingly, the consideration payable by AIB for the Transaction is a nominal cash payment of €1.00. Following completion of the Transaction, EBS will operate as a fully licensed subsidiary of AIB. This consideration structure best protects the commercial interests of the State.

The Transaction constitutes a “related party transaction” for AIB for the purposes of the ESM Rules (being a transaction between AIB and the Minister who, through the National Pensions Reserve Fund Commission (the “NPRFC”), holds 93.1% (this holding is forecast to increase to 93.5% following the application of a late issuance adjustment in connection with the bonus issue of shares to the NPRFC announced by AIB on 13 May 2011) of the total issued ordinary share capital of AIB). The Directors of AIB (the “Directors”) consider, having consulted with AIB’s ESM adviser, Morgan Stanley & Co. International plc (“Morgan Stanley”), that the terms of the Transaction are fair and reasonable. The Directors appointed by the Minister, Mr Declan Collier, Mr Dick Spring and Dr Michael Somers, have not taken part in the AIB Board’s decision to proceed with the Transaction.

AIB shareholder approval is not required for the Transaction
